CAPTAIN

Kent Russell (Severance, CO): Kent moved from Broke Bow to Severance, CO, in March of 2018 to try a new adventure. He is now employed by Four Rivers Equipment in Greeley, CO, as a Commercial Hay Specialist. Kent is on the sales team at this John Deere Dealership. Kent enjoys mainly big game hunting with archery or rifle and fishing. Kent serves as a current One Box member, was the 2014-15 treasurer, and 2016 One Box Hunt Chairman.

Kent and wife, Tara, have been married for 25 years. They have three children—Kassandra, Kolton, and Karson. Kent is very grateful his boys were involved in the One Box shooting program.

TEAM MEMBERS

Brian Busse (St. Paul, NE): A native of Leigh, NE, Brian graduated from Fremont High School in 1982. He attended Midland Lutheran College and graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education and Biological Science. He has a teaching degree and coaching endorsement.

Brian is a full-time instructor with the Nebraska State Fire Marshal office. In that capacity, he is responsible for assisting fire departments in 21 counties in Central Nebraska. This includes training responders to be more effective and efficient in emergencies. Besides primarily working in his assigned region, Brian has helped train all across the state and responded to incidents to provide technical assistance to the responders. He holds a number of different levels of certification in regards to emergency response that are recognized by national accreditation organizations. He has also assisted in incidents of national significance within Nebraska borders. Brian has 14 years experience as a full time instructor, and 22 as a responder.

Brian enjoys upland game hunting, but any hunting, trapping, and some fishing in general—especially when spending time with his children. Over the past two years, he has assisted in coaching his local 4-H trap team and enjoys watching the young shooters grow and develop. He has been humbled by watching his oldest daughter, who has down syndrome, participate and succeed in the Special Olympics Golf competitions.

Brian has been a member of the St. Paul Volunteer Fire Department since 2005. He also works part-time for Jacobsen-Greenway Funeral Home in St. Paul assisting families during their time of grief with the celebrations of life for their loved ones.

His bride, Janet, of 26 years is currently the controller at Howard County Medical Center in St. Paul. The couple has three children; two daughters and one son.

Kevin Moss (Hopeville, GA): Kevin has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Economics from Georgia State University. He is currently responsible for the operations of the Dwarf House in Hopeville, GA, as well as the Chick-fil-A at Delta Airlines World Headquarters. The Dwarf House is the first restaurant opened by Truett Cathy and is where the Chick-fil-A sandwich was invented. Kevin has 33 years experience in hospitality management.

Kevin attended the Grand National Waterfowl Hunt and the Kansas Governor's One Shot Hunt. He also enjoys water sports, deep sea fishing, deer, and bear hunting. Kevin enjoys collecting antique tractors and currently has 33. He shoots antique weapons competitively in the N-SSA.

He is the past regional chair for the Lions Club of North Georgia He is a past vice president and serves on the board of Flint River Council Of Boy Scouts of America. Kevin and his wife, Donna, have two sons in college, Daniel (20) and Caleb (18).

H. Thomas Fick (Albion, NE): H. Thomas has his B.S. in Horticulture/Agronomy from Iowa State University. He is a certified crop consultant and owns and operates K Double T Crop Consulting. He is the Education Chair of NICCA. He has 50 years of experience in the Agronomy Business.

H. Thomas is involved with Ducks Unlimited and the NRA. He is mainly interested in bird hunting and youth mentor hunts. He has been the past chair for the Ducks Unlimited-Beaver Valley Chapter. He has been the head guide for the Mixed Bag Hunt and guided at the Beaver Valley Outdoorsman. He hunted in the Grand National Waterfowl Association Hunt in Maryland.

He has been the chair of the Albion Planning Commission, Albion Board of Adjustment & Boone County Board of Adjustment. He is a past president of the Zion Lutheran Church in Albion as well as the past president of the Albion Country Club. H. Thomas is a Vietnam Veteran. He enjoys big red football, all forms of outdoor activities, and spending time and traveling with family.

Kent Reynolds (Broken Bow, NE): For the last several years, Kent has enjoyed developing friendships serving as a guide to One Box past shooter teams. He enjoys hunting pheasants and deer with friends and relatives. He and his son try calling in coyotes how and then. Kent was born and raised in the Broken Bow area and feels privileged to be from this heartwarming community. He is the owner of a grain-hauling eighteen wheeler and has a son, Cash (15.)
